

Volunteer Opportunity: Call for Board Members

Hackmatack has open positions on our volunteer board of directors.

Board terms are two years, with the ability to re-offer. Hackmatack board members must reside in the Atlantic Provinces.

How We Work

We're a working board that normally meets virtually seven times a year. Our meetings are efficient and energetic; our work style is collaborative.

We strive for our board to reflect our mission to enable all children to see themselves in the books they read.

We're particularly interested in people who self-identify as Indigenous, Black, persons of the global majority, racialized, 2SLGBTQIA+, newcomers to Canada and/or persons with disabilities.

About Hackmatack

The Hackmatack Children's Choice Book Award & Society is a small and mighty nonprofit. We began our work in 1999. Our board members are located in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island.

Based in Halifax, we run a literacy and book award program in French and English for Atlantic Canadian children in grades 4-6.

Registered reading clubs read shortlisted books, vote for annual award winners, and can attend virtual and in-person visits from nominated Canadian authors and illustrators.
